The Association for Women in Communications - New Jersey Chapter (AWCNJ) is kicking off the fall season by getting "back to business." Network with communications professionals across all disciplines in the elegant, yet informal, atmosphere of Bar Cara in Bloomfield, a popular and highly rated Italian eatery.

The menu includes a selection of three entrees, salad and dessert. A full cash bar will also be available. AWCNJ members, non-members and students are welcome to attend.

AWCNJ will be running a special membership promotion that evening, so it's also a good time to learn about all the organization has to offer for communications professionals in New Jersey. For those who join AWCNJ at the networking event, the $50 application fee will be waived.

AWCNJ members are invited to bring materials for the members-only display table. Members are also welcome to highlight their career and business pursuits during our signature Women in Communications Cares session.
